Singing: 255:1-3 – 141:1 – 233: 1, 3, 5, 6 – 41:5-7 – 160:1-4

Intro: Self denial for Christ's sake brings immeasurable blessings!

A. Paul lived like His Master (Phil. 2:5-8) to gain people for Christ (1 Cor. 9:12, 23)

1. Get the flavor in 8:13; 9:19; 10:33
2. Review his resume: Ch. 9
3. Hear his passionate plea: Ch. 10

B. God draws attention to the Lord's Supper (1 Cor. 10:16, 21-22)

1. Lord's Supper is one of the channels God uses to bring His blessings to us
 - a. the means of His grace defined
 - b. the means of His grace identified
2. Lord's Supper is designed by God to strengthen faith (see CoF 33)

By inviting you as His people to the Table, Jesus seeks to commune with you

I. If you desire that blessing, you need to be careful not to provoke the Lord

A. The perfect Husband desires communion with His Bride: Lk 22:15; John 17:24

B. Yet because He is the perfect Lover, He is also a jealous Lover (Ex. 20:5)

1. The history of the Jews stands as a prophetic warning: 1 Cor. 10:1-15, 21-22
2. This prompts the need for self-examination (Eph. 4:30)

II. If you desire to commune with Jesus, don't neglect His means to deepen it

A. God reminds you that in the use of bread & wine, He communes with us

1. This is no automatic benefit
2. But there will be no benefit if we neglect to make use of His means of grace
 - a. eating and drinking is far more than a memorial meal
 - b. eating and drinking is a communing with His blood and body
