FOR THE FAMILY OR PERSONAL REFLECTION ...

1. With a concordance, explore the words 'know the Lord' in the OT.
2. Write down for yourself how you view God's character. Think about how this view influences you as you open your Bibles each day?
3. Discuss or ponder the statement, "It is not how much we get out of our devotions but what we give in our devotions that matters."
4. Before we can truly 'give to God' we still need first to 'get from God.' What do we need to get in order to give Him the worship He is entitled to receive? How does this need reflect itself in our prayer? Scan through Ps. 119 to locate verses that give directions on how and what to pray.
5. Why was Spurgeon right when he said that 'the unknown cure of fallen man is the knowledge of God?'
